

From: Richard Levine
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/21/01 12:44am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft has made a generous settlement proposal. It will benefit those who need it the most. States that have been depending on the settlement will get the benefit of better education, and California that ranks 48th in Academics would do well to settle. It is truly a pity that Gray Davis will be leaving the governorship in such a sorry state, but penalizing industry for revenue would be his most egregious act of his career.
Richard Levine